

OH Sheila Sachs - 18"x24" Latex On Wood 2009

Sheila Sachs was the art director at The Chicago Reader for 20+ years until some giant jerk company called Creative Loafing took it over and made the paper terrible and fired everybody. Sheila comes from Rockford, Illinois. There is a restaurant there called Beefaroo that is an Arby's rip off. Their food is rather tasty!

OK Made The One I Love - 18"x24" Latex On Wood 2009

I am always talking about Amy because I like her so much. Lately she might not think so because I've been grumpy because I have been working so hard on this art show. She is from Lawton, Oklahoma and then she went to school here in Norman. She doesn't ever really talk bad about Oklahoma like I do about Ohio. Every time we come to visit Oklahoma I have a very nice time because the people are rather warm. The people in Ohio are not warm, they are mad at you if you are happy.

Pink Bear - 36"x36" Latex On Window 2007

This is a painting of a bear on an old window. I made 6 different colors of bears on windows in 2007 and have only sold 1. Often people will tell me how much that they like this painting and that they want to buy it, but then they never do. If this painting doesn't sell here, I'm not taking it back to Chicago; I'm going to leave it behind Forward Foods at 123 East Main Street at the beginning of June.

Popcorn – 23"x23" Latex On Wood 2009

I took this image from a record cover, that's called appropriation. It's okay to appropriate some things, but not others. Like you can't appropriate Snickers Bars from grocery stores. They will put you behind bars!

Popcorn – 24"x30" Latex On Wood 2009

This painting is for free, I am giving it to you. I hope that you like it. You're welcome!

Queen Adelaide Louise Theresa Caroline Amelia – 96"x40" Latex On Bed Sheet 2008

There is a city in Australia named after this lady. She was born in Germany in 1792 on August 13th. That's my birthday! This painting is painted on a bed sheet that I slept on for two years. I cleaned it though there are some things that you can't get out. Just kidding!
